

Picture play

Look at the image below. If you were in the lighthouse, what could you see? Write a description that tells your reader about the coast- line, the sea and the people/ animals that can be seen. Think about how you can use your senses in your description.

To extend your writing further, think about the weather and how this might change from day to day.